

jakob k. - your great imagination

blue christmas

(music: jakob künzel / lyrics: marco piazzalonga)

the night is dark and long with only shivers to share a time like a shabby coat where the snow can get in here and there i'm walking this situation a hole in my inner shoes icicles that hang from my soul ain't nothing hurting more than the christmas blues the wind stands in the west and brings clouds from the sea (there are) high waves upon the water and high waves deep within me it's a blue, blue christmas (this year)

things they have changed it ain't like it used to be i'm talkin' about a straight direction to put me some love under the christmas tree
